

DIAMONDS

We will continue to sell at the old price

The price of diamonds in the rough has advanced 10 per cent. since we bought out last lot.

Our Amsterdam agent expects another advance of 10 per cent. very shortly.

As we purchased our diamonds for the spring trade before the first advance,

We will still sell at the old price

This gives our customers the advantage of at least 10 per cent., which, considering the fact that we purchase direct, in large quantities, and for cash, and sell for a reasonable advance on cost, makes buying diamonds from us a good investment.

No Lumber in Reciprocity Scheme Unless the Canadians Concede Everything.

Yukon Commissioners Will See That No One There Goes Hungry This Winter.

Toronto Lord's Day Alliance Make Free With Ottawa Affairs—Increased Assessment.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—Five Ottawa lumbermen have gone to Washington to confer with the American representatives regarding the lumber duties. No result is expected unless the Canadians concede everything.

Mr. Sifton has received a report from Mr. Ogilvie, the Yukon commissioner. He says that there is no starvation in Dawson, and there will be sufficient food for all. Some parties who arrived there without any means and unsuited for the place are consequently hard up. Mr. Ogilvie is seeing them through and no one will be allowed to go without food. Business is fairly active and everything going on satisfactorily.

The revised assessment of the city of Ottawa is $23,679,205, an increase of $800,000.

Ottawa newspapers are berating the Toronto Lord's Day Alliance for interfering in the Ottawa city Sunday car question, a matter in which Toronto has no concern.

MR. TISDALL EXPLAINS

He Was Not Opposed to Bill to Prevent Speedy Trial of Election Petitions.

But Resigned Because Provincial Constable Sent Clerk's Receipt as Voucher to Government.

Seventy Cents' Worth of Cartridges Effective in Bringing Down the Member.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Vancouver, Jan. 11.—Mr. Tisdall consented this morning to explain the reason of his resignation from the legislature. He said that he had issued instructions to his clerk not to sell goods to any government official. In spite of these instructions, on the 22nd of December a clerk in his employ sold seventy cents' worth of cartridges to Provincial Police Officer Campbell residing here. Officer Campbell got a receipt for the money and sent it to Victoria as an expense voucher on January 5.

"On January 7th it reached Victoria. On Monday while talking to the Attorney-General regarding the proposed assize office this voucher was produced and handed to me. There was but one course open to me—to resign. I did so at once. A writ will be issued immediately and I will go to the people a strong supporter of the Seunlin government.

"I was not opposed to the election bill, voting for it on the first reading, therefore my resignation had nothing to do with the bill. I did not treat the Colonist unfairly by refusing to speak last night. I also refused an explanation to the News-Advertiser and to all enquiring friends. I wished to wait until to-day."

LETTER FROM MR. TISDALL.

Vancouver, Jan. 11, 1899.

Editor Colonist, Victoria:

Dear Sir,—Referring to your issue of even date you are good enough to state that I left Victoria as a protest against the election bill. As that statement is not in accordance with the facts, will you kindly give me space to contradict it?

As soon as I was elected to the legislature I gave instructions to my clerk that under no circumstances whatever were goods to be sold to the provincial government or their officials. Despite these instructions a clerk sold Officer Campbell, of the provincial police, a box of cartridges to the value of 70 cents, the clerk taking a receipt for the amount paid. The sale took place on December 22 and Mr. Campbell sent in the receipt as a voucher on January 5. It came to the notice of the Attorney-General on the 9th inst., and despite the fact that I had absolutely no knowledge of the transaction I signed a receipt for my clerk's action and resign my seat in the legislature, my intention being to go to the people for re-election.

I much regret that I was not in the house to give the government all the support in my power to help them carry the election bill, but hope to be shortly in a position to help them carry out the business outlined in the speech from the throne.

Faithfully yours,

CHARLES E. TISDALL.

COL. DOMVILLE SUES.

Claim for Damages for Dismissal from Service of His Klondike Company.

St. John, Jan. 11.—(Special)—W. H. Trewartha James, of London, managing director of the Klondike, Yukon and Stewart Pioneer Company, of which Col. Domville, M.P., was until recently Canadian manager, was today served with a writ issued by Chief Justice Tuck at the instance of Col. Domville, who claims $5,000 damages for slander. The alleged slanders were statements which, it is claimed, resulted in Col. Domville's dismissal from the service of the company.

SCARED TO DEATH.

Fate of a New Jersey Man who Almost Ran Down a Railroad Train.

New York, Jan. 11.—In Lambertville, N.J., Henry Moore is dying of fright. The doctors have examined him carefully and say that nothing else is the matter with him. They say, too, that he cannot recover.

Several days ago he drove a team of horses on to a railroad crossing and suddenly discovered a train coming toward him. He made frantic efforts to get out of the way and apparently succeeded in backing the team somewhat, for the engine caught the horses and threw them in the air. The wagon was not upset, but the horror of the few seconds when he was in front of the train made him so wildly excited that he grovelled in the road praying that the engine "wouldn't see him." He is not insane, but is succumbing to weakness caused by the terror which still possesses him.

MAYORALTY

To the Electors of the City of Victoria: Ladies and Gentlemen:

At the solicitation of many friends, I have the honor to offer myself as a candidate for the mayoralty, and at the forthcoming election seek the suffrages of the citizens of Victoria. Being closely identified with several large industries in the province, and in this city in particular, it will be seen that my sympathies are with the objects sought to be attained by the Committee of Fifty; and, should I be elected, I would know no party, but labor for the best interests of all. Yours respectfully, WALTER MORRIS.

MUSIC AND THE PLAY

Talented Vaudeville Entertainers
Provide an Evening of Unadulterated Amusement.

To-Morrow Evening's Comedy Attraction—Return of the Grau Opera Company.

Those who did not go to "A Boy Wanted" at the Victoria last night, under the impression that "having seen two or three of those farce-comedies you've seen them all," will know better next time. It may be that this nonsense show of Charles E. Blayney's is the exception that proves the rule; at all events, it was not the same by any means as the usual run of semi-farce semi-vaudeville semi-insane combinations flooding the theatre world. It makes no pretensions to plot, literary quality or scenic splendor. Therefore, these things are not of the show. On the other hand, it is announced as replete with fun, musical specialties, and the highest grade of vaudeville. And as such an entertainment nothing better has been seen here in years. The dancing is elegant and full of surprises, some of the swings and changes of position being indeed just a little faster than the bloscope. The songs, too, are as new and pretty as the dances, very well sung; while the variety features illustrate how vaudeville can be made a crystallization of dramatic ability. The dancing features are credited to E. S. Morcy, while the music, for the most part, bears the name of W. W. Newcomer. Of the specialty people the acrobatic or contortion dancers deserve a word of generous praise, while Knox Wilson's concertina and piano selections were well deserving of the applause they commanded. The star of all, however, is Fred. Walz, whose musically illustrated story of his love that left him a revelation of the possibilities of piano humor, in combination with eccentric character acting something in the line of Alice Curle's well remembered "Lion and Glove," but an even more admirable performance, inasmuch as Mr. Walz supplies his own music. Mr. Blayney, for the present at least, is entitled to recognition as having brought the most finished variety performance of the season to Victoria.

"A CONTENTED WOMAN."
What promises to be the banner attraction of the season will be the engagement of Hoyt's "A Contented Woman" at the Victoria theatre to-morrow evening. "A Contented Woman," like all Mr. Hoyt's plays, satirizes something, and the something this time is the much-talked-of "new woman," who thinks in politics she is able to cope successfully with the sterner sex. How she goes to work, and the success of her attempt, is brought out with all the keen wit and native humor which distinguishes all the work of America's greatest writer of farce comedy. A word in regard to the production. When "A Contented Woman" was first produced at Hoyt's theatre, New York, the theatre goers of the metropolis, used as they are to the most gorgeous productions, held up their hands in amazement. Never in the annals of New York amusement chronicles was such a lavish scenic mounting ever seen as a farce comedy. No detail, however slight though it might be, was neglected to make this the most perfect production of musical comedy the metropolis had ever seen. The Hoyt theatre production will be put on the boards of our theatre in identical the same manner as in New York city. The cast, Mr. Hoyt claims, is the best possible, and contains such names as Belle Archer, Bonnie Lottie, Fanny Denham Rouse, Chas. Foran, C. P. Morrison, Henrietta Lee, Barry Maxwell, Edward Craven, Belle Chipendale, Will Granger, and a host of pretty girls. Including Phyllis Young, Lenora Lockwood and Eugene Taylor, the famous beauty trio late with "Jack and the Beanstalk."

GRAU OPERA COMPANY.
There is no doubt but that the operative event of the month will be the advent of the Grau Opera Company at the Victoria theatre for the week of January 10th, opening in a grand production of "Boccaccio" up-to-date. There is no organization of a like character in this country to-day that ranks higher in the public estimation than does the Grau company, for their representations have always been carried out to the letter. They have always avoided any claims that they could not satisfy, and theatre goers have come to know that organization bearing the name of Grau has upon it the genuine stamp of merit. Among the artists this season are such names as Adele Farrington, Mary Carington, Fannie Meyers, Mr. George Broderick, Harry Davies, Sylvian Langlois, Dan Young and Stockton's popular comedian, Mr. St. John, a tall, a tall, and pretty chorus and Grau's own or-

McKnight, of Kirkwall, Ont. She says:

"I feel it my duty to let you know that Dr. Chase's Ointment has cured my baby's bad case of eczema on his body. We had tried many other cures without any permanent relief, but from the hour we commenced using Dr. Chase's Ointment there was great relief, and the improvement continued until there was complete cure. We think it the greatest of family ointments."

"MORRIS DANCER"—Cheviot, g., by Pecksniff. Mrs. Heep. Aged; car. 6st. 3 lbs.

Of this animal little or nothing is known. His color and formation do not recommend him. He has probably proved "fast" enough in private, although the stable have kept his performances dark, and with such a light weight may flatter his backers for a time.

It would be well for backers to remember that should "Morris Dancer" run out of the course an act of parliament could easily be obtained for altering the position of the flags.

Colors, yell-oh.

Railway Connection.—Yesterday the railway delegates from Port Angeles met the joint committee composed of the railway committee of the board of trade and the railway sub-committee of the citizens' committee of Fifty. The Port Angeles contingent suggested that the plan they believed best would be that some local company here be bonded to take up the matter of running a railway ferry between Victoria and Port Angeles, the railway to allow them their proportion of the freight rates. However, nothing definite was decided, and it was resolved that the Port Angeles delegation put their ideas in writing for submission to the Victoria committee to-day.

Rev. W. L. Clay presided. Several present spoke strongly in favor of the movement, and it was decided to adjourn and meet again at a week from Monday evening for the purpose of organization.

PACKING THE JURY.

The work of packing the jury was completed yesterday, when the Lieutenant-Governor signified his assent to the bill to send Messrs. Prentice and Deane in the legislature, in defiance of the law under which they were elected. The action of His Honor in dismissing Mr. Turner and his colleagues may now be safely submitted to the verdict of the elected and legislated representatives of the people.

This result has been reached by disregarding the rules of parliamentary procedure which have prevailed in the British realm since parliaments had their existence in their present form. Every precedent has been violated. The words of the leading government organ have been made good, and the British constitution no longer applies to British Columbia.

It is not the intention of the Colonist to make any personal criticism of the Lieutenant-Governor in this connection. His advisers take the responsibility for what he has done. They will be called upon to make their defence in their places in the house, and it will then be time enough to discuss the matter. We have asserted everything that appears necessary pending the presentation by His Honor's advisers of their defence for this most extraordinary proceeding.

We may draw attention to one very significant statement of the Attorney-General, made during the debate on the motion to postpone consideration of the bill. He said that he wanted Mr. Prentice in the house before proceeding with the debate on the address. He knew perfectly well that, on the debate on the address, the action of the Lieutenant-Governor in dismissing his late advisers is bound to come up, and he wanted a packed jury. He has got one.

The passage of this bill should be the inauguration of the most earnest campaign for a restoration to the people of British Columbia of the constitutional rights which they have hitherto supposed they possessed in common with British subjects everywhere.

MR. HALL'S RESIGNATION.

We insist as a proposition of law that Mr. Richard Hall could have safely taken his seat in the legislature, notwithstanding the sale of a few tons of coal to the Lieutenant-Governor; but we cordially endorse his action in accepting the challenge thrown down by the government by the resignation of Mr. Tisdall on trumpety grounds. Mr. Hall will again be a candidate for election, and it goes without saying that his friends who supported him last summer will hasten to tender him the nomination.

His election is assured. He will receive votes from electors who did not assist him at the general election, and we do not believe there is a man who voted for him then, who will not give him the heartiest support now.

The issue before the electors of Victoria is of the greatest importance, and the manner in which they shall pronounce upon it will have an important bearing upon the political condition of the province. We hope to see an effort put forward that will lead to the triumphant return of Mr. Hall by a vote that will show to all Canada that the people of Victoria are fit to be entrusted with the defence of their constitutional rights.

STRAINING AT A GNAT.

Mr. Tisdall says he resigned because one of his clerks sold seventy cents' worth of cartridges to a provincial police officer. More perfect rubbish never was dished up for public attention. The sale of those cartridges no more disqualified Mr. Tisdall than the purchase of a postage stamp disqualifies a member of parliament. The object of Mr. Tisdall's resignation was to force Mr. Hall to resign. Neither seat was under the law vacated, and it would have been perfectly proper for the government to have introduced a bill to declare the meaning of the statute, which is alleged to have been infringed, by stating that ordinary purchases of merchandise did not come within its meaning. We believe that the court would have so held.

It is too late to talk about that now.

The gauntlet has been thrown down to Mr. Hall and the opposition party in Victoria and it has been taken up. The government feels safe in taking this course, for they believe they can carry Vancouver beyond all doubt. They have everything to gain, they think, and nothing to lose.

EXCLUSION OF ALIENS.

The Post-Intelligencer does not like the idea of excluding aliens from British Columbia placers. This is quite natural; nevertheless its reasons are entitled to consideration, because if the proposed measure, which was originally suggested by the Colonist, will not stand the test of examination from any proper standpoint, it ought not to become law. Our Seattle contemporary gives two reasons why the policy of exclusion should not prevail. One of them is that Atlin was discovered by United States citizens and that the exclusion of these people will block its development. The other is that Canadians are likely to be given the same privileges in Alaska as Canada extends to all the world, that is in respect to mining.

The first of these reasons has nothing to commend it to the people of British Columbia. We are not prepared to assert definitely whether or not the first discovery in Atlin was made by a United States citizen, but if it was, Canadians were not far behind him. This is quite immaterial, because British Columbia is not a "no man's land," and consequently no foreigner acquires any rights in it by discovery. We do not suppose that our contemporary puts forward this part of its contention with any seriousness. The second part, that the exclusion of aliens will prevent the development of Atlin, is a view of the case which meets with some little approval in this province, and something may be urged in its favor. Unquestionably if every one is permitted to go into the Atlin country and dig out gold, the present year will witness a phenomenal rush. There are business men in Victoria and Vancouver who believe that a quick rush for a year or so would be preferred to slower exploitation of the placers. We do not think the view a sound one. If there is an unrestricted rush this year to Atlin, British Columbia cities will get a very large portion of the trade, but not nearly all of it. If the development of the district is slower, they will get it all.

What does a quick rush mean? The best way to answer this is to point out that in Atlin we have a territory of indefinite extent, which appears to be all gold-bearing, but of such a nature that the placers will be worked out in a short time. After they have been worked out, the district will be abandoned, unless, as we admit is probable, sufficient quartz mines will be discovered to warrant the investment of capital. But as the proposed measure does not apply to quartz mines, it is not necessary to say anything about them. It is of no possible use to British Columbia to have a horde of aliens come into the province and carry away the placer gold in a couple of years. On the other hand, if the placers are kept for our own people, business will be more permanent, our own merchants will get the whole of it and the gold will remain in the country.

On the second point, that the same concessions may be granted to Canadians in Alaska, as Canada grants to aliens in her mines, we will know what value to place upon this privilege better after we get it. The Post-Intelligencer has no authority to speak for any one in that matter. Lately it has been telling us with many yards of flaring headlines that Canada was to be completely outwitted at the Anglo-American conference, and was to be given a few nominal concessions in exchange for privileges of great value. We will think about paying for the favors extended, when we have had an opportunity of sampling them.

MR. ALEXANDER HENDERSON.

The position which Mr. Alexander Henderson, M.P., has seen fit to take is not edifying, and unless he promptly recedes from it he will occupy a most ignominious position in the estimation of the public. Mr. Henderson himself knows better than any one else that his sudden desertion of the gentlemen, to whom he owes his election, cannot be justified. He knows that he promised to support the late government and after the election approached them as a supporter. We do not feel like applying harsh epithets to him, because he may yet see how grave an error he has committed and take the course which every principle of manliness dictates. If he does not, he will find himself buried in political oblivion, because no one will trust him for a single moment hereafter.

We are utterly at a loss to discover excuses for Mr. Henderson's action, and do not believe that his ingenuity is equal to the invention of one. He has made a mistake, which he can rectify; but if he does not take the earliest opportunity of doing so, he must be content to occupy a place, absolutely unique, in the list of British Columbia legislators.

TRAVEL TO THE YUKON.

Persons, who are contemplating a winter's journey to the Klondike, will be interested to know that the Commissioner of the Yukon Territory has issued orders that no person will be permitted to enter the Yukon Territory without satisfying the Northwest Mounted Police officers at English and White Horse rapids that they have with them two months' assorted provisions and at least $500 in cash, or six months' assorted provisions and not less than $200 in cash, over and above the money required to pay expenses from the border to Dawson.

This order will not apply to residents of the Yukon Territory returning, if they are identified and prove their competence to pay their way into the country.

This order having been given by Mr. Ogilvie, we assume that he feels the exigencies of the case require it, and although it seems somewhat arbitrary, we are not inclined to make any objection to it.

A Vancouver despatch announced that the News-Advertiser Printing and Publishing Company had received the contract for certain binding for the provincial government. The News-Advertiser company is managed by Mr. Francis L. Carter-Cotton, minister of finance. It is a limited liability company, and therefore the provision for securing the independence of parliament does not apply, and Mr. Cotton's seat is not vacated by reason of the acceptance by himself, as manager of a book-binding establishment, of a contract with a branch of the government, for the performance of the work referred to. It would, of course, make very little difference whether it did or not, for the government would promptly introduce and its servile majority with equal promptness pass a bill to relieve Mr. Cotton from any pains and penalties which he might incur by sitting and voting in the house after making such a contract.

The Times a few evenings ago endeavored to create the impression that Victoria's new evening paper was to be in some way connected with the Colonist. It is therefore perhaps well to say that, except that it has made a contract to do a portion of the mechanical work for the newspaper, it has no interest in the matter whatever. The Colonist is ready at all times to make commercial contracts for such work, and would have no objection to making one with the Times. At the same time the Colonist is not wholly uninterested in seeing a new evening paper in the field, for there is room for one, which will deal honestly with its contemporaries and public questions.

Seattle mourns the death of Arthur A. Denny, the last survivor of the little pioneer band who founded the Queen City of the Sound. It was in 1851 that Mr. Denny first landed with his family at Alki Point, which is in West Seattle. Since then his home has been continuously on the shore of Elliott Bay. He occupied almost every position in the gift of the citizens, certainly every one that he cared to fill. He leaves behind him a splendid record, as well as a fine fortune for his family.

Mr. Cotton, Finance Minister, had some things to say yesterday in regard to the awarding of the binding contract to the News-Advertiser Printing & Publishing Co. During the exchange of observations on this point, Mr. Cotton apologized for the delay in bringing down the public accounts, saying that the early date at which the session was held was the reason for it. If Mr. Cotton will consult his memory, he will see that a few years ago the house met in November, but the accounts were ready at the opening of the session.

Mr. Speaker Foster held that the expression "iniquitous" applied to a piece of legislation was unparliamentary. We may remind Mr. Speaker that the expression "conceived in sin and shapen in iniquity" has been held to be parliamentary when applied to a bill. Less fuss over imaginary niceties of language and more attention to the dictates of common honesty would elevate the tone of legislative proceedings.

The Times deliberately misstates the facts regarding last night's meeting. Referring to one of the speakers, it says he was interrupted by "howls, cat-calls, groans, hisses and cheers." This is a libel on the meeting. There was little or no interruption of speakers by the audience. There was not a groan, howl or cat-call emitted by any one present during the whole evening.

The Singapore Free Press says that the annexation of the Philippines by the United States will mean years of civil war, but if all that is attempted is the establishment of a protectorate, with a pledge from the Filipinos that they will support the United States in case of war, peace will be readily established. The Free Press says the Filipinos have shown themselves quite fit for the discharge of the duties of self-government.

Mr. Morris, candidate for mayor, complains that the Colonist has "distorted and twisted and abbreviated" his remarks so that there was no sense in them. If this is the case, the fault lies with Mr. Morris and not with the reporters, for the instructions to the reporters were to report everything said by every speaker succinctly but fairly.

Mr. Cotton was good enough to let it be known that it was only the generosity of the present government which prevented the persons connected with the Colonist from being called before the bar of the house and incarcerated for the publication of the Vancouver despatch about the contract for binding. Mr. Cotton is outgrowing his common sense.

The Kamloops and District Mining Gazette is a monthly publication issued by Messrs. W. W. Clarke and F. E. Young. The first number gives good promise for the future. The Gazette has introduced a new feature, namely, the publication of diagrams showing the underground workings of mines.

When Mr. Joseph Martin told the house that he had no fear for the future, because he always did what is right, the silence was so great that you could almost have heard a gum-drop.

It is understood that the writ for election to fill the vacancy in the repreresentation of Vancouver caused by the resignation of Mr. Tisdall has been issued.

THE BINDING AND ENGRAVING CONTRACTS.

With regard to the tenders for binding and lithographing referred to in the telegram in the Colonist this morning from a special correspondent, I think it but just to state that this company had every opportunity afforded it for tendering on the work. The News-Advertiser put in the lowest tender for the binding, and naturally was awarded the contract. The Colonist tender for lithographing the checks was sent in on December 24, and I understand the design was sent that day to Vancouver to be tendered on. The date the tenders were opened I am unaware of, but in the first week of the new year I was verbally informed that there were three tenders considered, that of the Colonist and the Province being nearly alike, with a preference for the paper submitted as sample by the Province. As Col. Wolfenden, Queen's printer, was the judge on this point, I am quite satisfied the decision was fair. To engrave and prepare the design for the press would have taken three days of eight hours each. I make this statement, not because of Hon. Mr. Cotton's hysterical utterances re my incarceration, but for the reason that he and his departmental officers acted fairly in the matter throughout, and I do not believe there is good ground for the charge of unfairness.

The Attorney-General introduced a bill to amend the "Police and Prisons Regulations Act." The measure was read a first time and set for second reading on Thursday.PRIVILEGE.
HON. MR. COTTON, as a question of privilege, directed the attention of the house to an article appearing in the Daily Colonist. He had been in the house, the honorable minister said, for a number of years, and he never had before felt compelled to rise to complain of reference to himself in the public press. He regretted that he had to do so now, but the article to which he referred reflected not only upon himself, but upon the government of which he was a member, charging "jobbery" in the allotment of certain contracts for binding to the News-Advertiser, and for lithographing to the Province. He proceeded to read extracts from the article complained of, and interpreted it as constituting a distinct charge of corruption, or even worse, if the present government were disposed to take the course that had been pursued by their predecessors in office, in the Kennedy case, the proponents of the Colonist might be brought before the bar of the house, and even incarcerated. He denied that there was any basis in fact for the allegations made, and thought that the house would endorse this statement when he had explained the circumstances. A large amount of binding was found to be necessary, and tenders had been invited, through the deputy minister of finance.
Six representative establishments were invited to compete for the work, and the bid of the News-Advertiser being the lowest, the work was awarded to that company. It was false to say that he was the proprietor of the News-Advertiser plant or paper; he wished that he were, for if so he might be a comparatively wealthy man. The printer of the Colonist, Mr. Roedde, for the binding, referred to in the article, had been received after the time set for the receiving of the bids; it was nevertheless considered, and found to be higher than the News-Advertiser tender. The acceptance of the bid had resulted in the loss of profit of at least 40 per cent. upon former charges for similar work, which was surely enough to convince the house that the government had acted wisely.
As to the lithographing, a large quantity of checks had been found necessary, and the three principal houses of the city were asked to submit prices.—The Colonist, the Province and Mr. Grant, of Vancouver. Mr. Grant's bid was the highest; the tenders of the Colonist and the Province were comparatively close, but when the quality of the paper and the lithographing were passed upon by the Queen's printer, the opinion of the government was confirmed in behalf of the Province, and the contract awarded accordingly. After this explanation he hoped that the Colonist would see fit to withdraw the reflections passed upon him and upon the government in the article referred to.MR. TURNER welcomed the explanation of the Finance Minister, because if the matter had gone unchallenged the people could not but infer that there was something seriously amiss, especially as the News-Advertiser was supposed to be owned wholly or in part by the Minister of Finance. He was pleased to hear that the cost of binding had been reduced, and hoped this would be found to be the case as stated. Cases not infrequently presented themselves, however, where with a nominal saving in price, the work was shown to be of material and labor to be fully 50 per cent. inferior.Hon. Mr. Cotton replied that the specifications had been carefully prepared to protect the province in this regard.PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.
MR. TURNER inquired when the house might expect to be put in possession of the public accounts. The now Minister of Finance had cast a slur upon him (Mr. Turner) when he tendered his resignation, on the ground that he had been dilatory in bringing down the public accounts. Not wishing to trust to his memory and wishing to be strictly accurate, he could state that when the house met in November, the public accounts had been brought in the very first day of the session.The leader of the opposition succeeded in getting this explanation before the house, although Mr. Speaker several times interrupted him on the ground that the time was not proper for the introduction of such information.HON. MR. HUME, replying to the leader of the opposition, said that the public accounts were now in the hands of the Queen's printer and would be ready in about one week.PLACER MINING ACT.
Hon. Mr. Hume introduced a bill to amend that portion of the revised statutes known as the Placer Mining Act.
The bill was read a first time, and set for second reading at the next sitting of the house.CHINESE HEAD TAX.
MR. HELMCKEN moved: "That a humble address be presented by this house to the Lieutenant-Governor, praying him to move the Dominion government to take into consideration the desirability of increasing the per capita tax on Chinese coming into the Dominion, and urging that in the opinion of this house, three-fourths of all moneys received in British Columbia ports from the present tax, or (if such tax be increased) three-fourths of such revenue be retained in the Dominion."

A PROTEST AGAINST BIGOTRY

It is a fundamental principle so thorowly digested that the most obtuse mind cannot doubt or fail to admit, that man is a free agent and at liberty to act in accordance therewith. True, the law has lines of demarcation intended to control or deter man's tastes and passions, that they may not infringe on vested rights by all equally shared. Nor does the law, when justly enforced, grant greater privileges to brainy, tutored minds than that accorded to the unlettered.

Government is a science based on wisdom,
and by its legislation must be guided.
The footprints of experience ripen thoughts, while mature deliberations mould and welds the lessons it affords into statutes for the guidance of its subjects. The most acute minds in Christendom have bent their energies in the formulation of laws conceived to be best adapted to meet the requirements of this present age.

Legislative bodies endowed with proper conception of their duties have never failed in any known section of civilization to grant to the trader in male, vicious or spirituous liquors the protection that all other licensed traders obtain under the law. Men of sound judgment, and selecting with sterling merits, justly grasp these views, discarding the vapors of the few prejudiced theoretical usurpers of law and theft.

If nations extend this inherent right, why does the unsanitary agitator fail to cease his ranting? Is the victualer as free in pro-

JAPANESE IN CHINA.

Viscount Aoki Outlines the Policy to Be Adopted by His Government.

Warlike Measures Adopted by China—Improvement of the Army.

Replying to a question put to him in the Japanese house of representatives, Viscount Aoki, minister of foreign affairs, expounded the policy to be adopted by the government in regard to Chinese affairs. The Viscount said the prime interest of this country is to preserve the tranquillity of the Far East. Our endeavors should be directed to avoiding, if possible, the dissolution or partition of China. We should be ready to co-operate with any power or powers that are interested in maintaining the integrity of the Chinese Empire. But, in the domain of foreign politics, there are factors that are beyond our control. In framing our policy, we cannot, and shall not, disregard these factors. The attitude of this country cannot help being modified by them. Viscount Aoki concluded by saying that, in every eventuality, Japan cannot remain an indifferent look-on of Chinese affairs.

JAPAN BANK TAX.

The bill for imposing a special tax on the Bank of Japan passed the house of representatives under a modified form. The original proposal that a portion of the bank's profit should go to the state treasury was rejected by the special committee. The bill adopted by the house fixes the rate of the tax at 1.5 per cent. of the amount of notes issued on securities. The bank is already under the obligation of making loans at a very low rate of interest or with no interest at all in certain cases provided by the law. These obligatory loans will be deducted from the total amount of notes issued on securities, and the special tax will be imposed on the remainder. It is estimated that the special tax will yield 1,381,500 yen a year when the amount of notes issued on securities is at the maximum, namely, 120,000,000 yen.

WARLIKE MEASURES.

The Peking correspondent of the N. C. Daily News says: Considerable additions in men and material to the troops not only of Peking and its vicinity, but also of Mongolia and Manchuria, are being actively but quietly pushed on, and the explanation of these warlike measures is that they are to fight against the masses in the north are anxiously awaiting the signal, which certain officials of the Conservative party have promised to give, for a general uprising against foreigners and their China friends. The edicts issued by the Emperor Dowager are coming into power, have inflamed the masses against foreigners to a dangerous degree. The Emperor Dowager has formed for herself a new bodyguard of 40,000 men of whom 10,000 were picked from the Imperial Guards; 30,000 from the Vanguard division of the Imperial Guards; 10,000 from the Peking garrison; and 10,000 from the eight Banner corps organizations. The pay of the new "Empress guards" is two times more than that of the old Imperial guards.

Native despatches received from Peking state that the Empress Dowager has been exhibiting considerable interest in military matters and on the 28th ultimo held an inspection of the newly raised additional regiments of the Peking field force outside the western gates of the palace. The Empress Dowager at the end of the inspection commanded that the troops be informed of her pleasure at beholding their fine appearance and discipline, and further stated that she "depended upon them in times of danger, and felt assured that they would prove a wall of strength in the present critical time." Such military inspections by the Empress Dowager as this were unknown prior to the coup d'état of September last.

A telegram received in Shanghai on the 19th inst. from Peking reports, says the N. C. Daily News, that a couple of days ago Prince Ching held a combined review of the troops of General Tung Fu-shiang's corps, and the Peking field force, aggregating 60,000 fighting men. Every soldier and trooper was armed with a breech-loader, and there was not the slightest indication of antiquated musket or bow and arrow in the whole regiment—the Southern hunting park.

FRENCH PRIEST KILLED.
An official telegram from Chungking on December 29 reports the killing of a French priest arising from a recent fight between the villagers of the Tantzshan hamlet, in Fatungshien district, and a number of R. C. converts in the vicinity. The latter, it is alleged, were better armed than the former, who, however, made up for the disparity by superior numbers.

FIREFUL CATASTROPHE.

On the night of December 18 a government powder factory at Hangchow caught fire, resulting in frightful loss of life and property; no less than some 1,500 persons are said to have been killed, and several hundreds of houses destroyed by the explosion of hundreds of barrels of newly-made gun powder. The family of the deputy in charge, living by the side of the magazine, were all killed excepting himself, who was badly wounded. Hundreds of houses were destroyed and many were rendered uninhabitable. Nothing was left of the store rooms of the powder. Many rooms, and also the stone balustrades of the handsome promenade, were destroyed, and the walls of the provincial judge's yamen and the Roman Catholic mission also sustained damage.

NARROW ESCAPE.

H.M.S. Eclipse narrowly escaped the experience of the American cruiser Maine during her stay at Bombay recently. It appears that, while the officers were at dinner in the ward room an explosion occurred beneath them, followed by sounds of numerous slighter concussions. The sounds were located in the shell room on the 12th quick-firing gun. This was at once flooded, and after pumping out, the inspection showed that three twelve-pounder shells from the top tier had exploded, the fragments being scattered all over the room, though little damage was done to the room fittings or to other shells. These shells are of a highly explosive character, but no others showed signs of injury. A court of inquiry was ordered, but no information beyond that already known elicited, the only explanation of the mystery being a theory of spontaneous explosion.

Basket Ball.—The Swifts basket ball club will practice at the Assembly rooms this evening—juniors at 7 and seniors at 8. All members are requested to attend.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

so increased should be paid to this province, as the chief injury from the presence of the Chinese is sustained by the Province, and not by the Dominion.

The resolution was adopted without objection or debate.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR'S ACTION.

Mr. Turner's resolution with reference to the constitutionality of His Honor's action in dismissing the late government was dropped, to be brought forward in another form later in the session.

PROVINCIAL RAILWAYS.

MR. HELMECKEN moved, seconded by Major-General Kinchard, for a return showing:

1. The number of railway companies incorporated by the legislature of this province.

2. The acts of incorporation of such companies, and the acts amending the same.

3. The railway companies that have actually constructed and equipped the lines they were empowered to build.

4. The routes along which said railways have been constructed.

5. The aid given to such railways in money and land in each case.

This resolution was agreed to.

JAPAN'S PROTEST.

Mr. Helmecken moved, seconded by Mr. Eberts, for a return of all correspondence between the Dominion government and the Provincial government touching the protest made by the Emperor of Japan to the Imperial government, calling in question the Labor Regulation act, 1898, or legislation of a similar character concerning Japanese subjects.

The resolution passed unopposed.

ELECTIONS PETITIONS BILL.

Mr. Speaker having announced the arrival of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, the business of the house was suspended, and His Honor formally assented to the bill respecting certain election petitions, which thus became law.

MEMBERS RESIGN.

Mr. Turner presented to the Speaker a letter from Richard Hall, elected as a representative of Victoria city, resigning his seat, it having come to his knowledge that he had unintentionally violated the law by supplying a small quantity of coal to Government House. The opposition leader inquired if Mr. Tisdall had taken similar action.

Mr. Speaker replied affirmatively.

Hon. Mr. Martin, as a question of semi-privilege, explained that Mr. Tisdall had resigned on its coming to his knowledge that one of his clerks had sold 70 cents' worth of cartridges to the Police Constable Campbell, a provincial officer, on December 22 last. He had given explicit directions to all his employees not to supply anything to the provincial authorities.

Mr. Turner added that Mr. Hall had given similar instructions to his clerks, and was in precisely the same position as Mr. Tisdall in this regard.

Hon. Mr. Martin, continuing denied that Mr. Tisdall's action was in any sense due to difference of opinion with the government on the Elections Petitions bill or any other subject.

CROWN GRANTS WITHHELD.

Capt. Irving moved for a return showing:

1. The names of applicants for land who have been refused crown grants by the present government.

2. Date when applications were made.

3. Upon what grounds the applications were refused.

Where the said lands are situated.

The resolution was amended to particularize the "Government since August 8 last," and was then adopted.

DISMISSAL OF MINISTRY.

Mr. Turner moved, seconded by Col. Baker, for a return of all correspondence between His Honor and the late Premier of the province, Mr. J. H. Turner, in relation to His Honor's refusal to sign certain warrants, and to the dismissal of the late government.

Agreed to.

JAPANESE LABOR.

Mr. Helmecken asked the Premier: "Has any communication been received by the Provincial government from the Dominion government relative to a protest made by His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Japan to the Imperial government against the act known as Labor Regulation act, 1898, or legislation of a similar character? What is the nature of such protest?"

Hon. Mr. Semlin—Two communications have been received from the Dominion government relative to the protest made by His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Japan to the Imperial government against the act known as the Labor Regulation act, 1898, and all private acts of last session which included the anti-Japanese clause. The nature of the protest is that such legislation is unfriendly and discriminating against Japanese subjects, and that such legislation if allowed to become law cannot but injuriously affect the cordial and commercial relations which exist between Japan and the Dominion of Canada, and which have every prospect of further development in the near future.

MINT IN THIS PROVINCE.

Mr. Helmecken asked the Premier: "What reply (if any) has been received from the Dominion government touching the resolution of this house passed on the 25th March, 1898, relative to the establishment of a mint in the province of British Columbia?"

Hon. Mr. Semlin—An acknowledgment by the department of the secretary of state of the receipt of the resolution, and that the matter would be submitted to His Excellency in council.

SONGHEES RESERVE.

Mr. Helmecken asked the Premier: "What reply (if any) has been received from the Dominion government touching the resolution of this house passed on the 3rd May, 1898, relative to the removal of the Indians from the Songhees reserve? What is the present position of the question?"

Hon. Mr. Semlin—The reply received with regard to the resolution referred to states that the Superintendent General of Indian Affairs cannot advise acquiescence in the suggestion that the negotiations should be resumed in accordance with the terms of the resolution of the legislative assembly of the 28th of January, 1896, which provided for the appointment of a special committee.

ORIENTAL LABOR.

Mr. Helmecken asked the Attorney-General: "Has any report been received by the Provincial government from the Dominion government touching the allowance of Labor Regulation act, 1898? If so, what is the nature of such report?"

Hon. Mr. Martin—The Dominion government has communicated to the Provincial government the report of the Minister of Justice with regard to the Labor Regulation act, 1898. The nature of that report is that protests have been made through the Imperial government against such legislation, and that the Imperial government regard the matter as one of Imperial interest. The provincial government is asked to give the matter early consideration, stating any facts or reasons which they may desire to be considered; also that it should be ascertained whether the provincial government would be prepared to recommend the repeal of the said act and of all the anti-Japanese and anti-Chinese sections of the private acts containing the same.

Mr. McPhillips asked the Premier: "Is it the intention to bring down legislation preventing or restricting the emigration to British Columbia of Chinese and Japanese?"

Mr. Semlin—The matter is one affecting the government policy and will be dealt with at a later date.

Mr. Turner was delighted to see that the government had a policy.

Mr. Pooley—We've seen their policy in their one bill.

ADDRESS IN REPLY.

Hon. Mr. Martin rose to inquire if the members of the house would have any objection to rescinding the resolution on the journals and taking up now the reply to the speech, in regard to which the opposition thought so much. Personally he regarded this as a mere formality, and requiring very little debate. One or two speeches were quite sufficient, but if the members wished to air their eloquence he had no objection. The necessity for the adjournment of the debate had now passed—the government had not wished to allow the opposition to use this debate as part of their obstruction tactics in endeavoring to prevent the passage of the Elections Petitions bill. They might now proceed, however, if the house desired.

Mr. Turner did not see the necessity for interference with the resolution of the house now that the purpose of the Attorney-General had been accomplished and insult offered to the representative of Her Majesty by the postponement of debate upon the speech from the throne for the sake of rambling through the terrible bill which had just become law. He resented as unbecomingly the Attorney-General's contention that the passage of the address was a mere formality, and referred to valuable precedents and authorities maintaining the desirability of a full and free discussion of the reply.

An objection was taken to the Attorney-General's proposal and the point was not pressed.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

AN OPEN LETTER TO COLONEL GREGORY.

Sir:—When addressing the meeting in the City hall last evening you made use of the following remarks: "I challenge Mr. Hall to resign his seat and run for re-election." I beg to inform you that I accept your challenge and have to-day resigned my seat in the legislature and will place myself in the hands of the electors of this city who, I am fully convinced will again return me as their chosen representative.

RICHARD HALL.

Victoria, January 11, 1899.

MR. HANNA EXPLAINS.

Sir: Since there appears to be a misunderstanding among some electors regarding my remarks about the inclusion of a superfluous inspector, I ask permission to put my views plainly. A year ago the trustees asked the council for money to repair the schools, and were refused, as finances were low. The trustees then forced the council into the expense of submitting a by-law to the people, thinking they would allow them the money, but the electors answered no, also, they having enough debt on their heads already, felt they must wait yet another while. Now I say for the trustees to put on a dual inspector (an idea which has never been introduced in any other city in Canada) after being refused the funds for much needed improvements was doing a thing contrary to the wishes of the people, and most people hold that a trustee failing to comply with the wishes of his electors no longer merits their support.

G. W. J. HANNA.

LODGER VOTERS.

Sir: J. B. M. asks you to tell him and others who are legally entitled to vote as lodgers. In answer, one who takes the trouble can easily understand by reading the Municipal Elections act.

Thus, any person who pays absolutely $5 per month for a room, and has done so for one year previous to making an application to have her or his name placed upon the voters' list before the 1st day of December in each year, and who has paid the taxes due to the corporation, is entitled to be placed upon the voters' list.

FROM THE FAR EAST.

Empress of Japan Followed In From the Orient by the Tartar.

Suit for Damages Arising Out of Non Delivery of Yukon Vessels.

It was nearly 4 o'clock yesterday morning when the tender, the steamer Princess Louise, returned from quarantine, bringing the Victoria mails and passengers brought from the Orient by the R. M. S. Empress of Japan. Capt. Carey, R. E., of Hongkong, son of ex-Mayor Carey of Victoria, was among the passengers who came in on the tender. He spent yesterday with his parents, and to-day leaves for the American side. Among other passengers who arrived on the Japan was Miss B. J. Allan, one of the two ladies who was in a C. P. R. launch at Yokohama when the junk collided with their craft, killing one of the passengers. The ladies were on their way out to the Empress, and had just passed the stern of the Northern Pacific liner Victoria when the junk, which could not be seen for the big steamer came down upon them. Miss Allan was injured by the blow, but has now almost recovered. The Japan brought 2,200 tons of cargo. She sighted four sailing vessels off the Straits, only one of which, however, was close enough to be distinguishable, and this was the C. P. R. ship, the Empress, on route to the Sound from San Francisco.

KLONDIKERS EMBARK.
Coated with fresh paint and looking in splendid trim from her recent overhauling, the City of Seattle, which called on her way north last evening, appeared much improved since she was last in port. She arrived at 4 and left at 6, carrying 15 passengers and a cargo of mail. Among the passengers were the former were Jack Carr, the northern mail carrier, and T. Turner, of Victoria, West, who accompanies him to Dawson City. Dr. E. B. Kelly, an Easterner, who with one or two others is going through to Dawson City, was aboard, who embarked here. He has 10 fine large dogs for his overland journey, and a very complete outfit. Others booked here for the Seattle were W. Ireland, who is going to Juneau; Messrs. Williams and Stevens, who are destined for Dawson, and Mrs. Zarelli, a Dyea business woman.

THE TARTAR ARRIVES.
About 10 o'clock last night the steamship Tartar, anchored off the outer wharf and after taking on a pilot passed on to Vancouver. She came from Hongkong, via Honolulu, and brings 1,000 tons of cargo, 1,000 tons of which is overland cargo, 200 tons is consigned to Victoria merchants and 300 tons is for San Francisco. She landed 400 tons of general cargo and 402 Japs at Honolulu.

CITIZENSHIP QUESTIONED.
The questioned eligibility of the Northern Pacific Steamship Company's ship, which was admitted to American registry last fall, is to be tried in the courts at Seattle. The Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association has taken up the matter. The association holds that the law governing the admission of citizens was too widely stretched in the granting of papers to the officers of the Northern Pacific steamers.

IN FAVOR OF PLAINTIFF.
A verdict has been given in the $21,000 suit of the Rock Island-Alaska Gold Mining Company v. F. W. Waterhouse, fought out in Seattle courts, awarding the plaintiffs $18,919.19. The whole case turned upon the authority of Capt. Conradi, of the defendant's ocean steamer Garonne, to charter the plaintiff's company's river steamer Rock Island. The court held that he had no such authority the defendant refused to pay nearly the whole charter price of $500 a day for fifty days. The testimony developed that Capt. Conradi on arriving at St. Michael, Alaska, had a large number of passengers and a big cargo of ore. The court held that the company's river steamer had not arrived and taking the responsibility upon himself, chartered the Rock Island to make the trip to Dawson.

SUING FOR DAMAGES.
One of the largest damage suits ever brought in the United States court is now on trial in Seattle. It is the case of D. R. Campbell & Sons, of Sangerville, Me., against Moran Bros., of Seattle. The suit is for damages of over $100,000 damages by reason of the alleged failure of the Moran fleet to deliver at the mouth of the Yukon river upon the opening of navigation three river steamers and barges. Of the damages $51,000 is alleged to be money paid to the Moran fleet under the alleged loss contract; $50,000 is claimed for alleged loss of the use of the river by the Moran fleet. The steamer was three of the Moran fleet of twelve and were originally contracted for by the Seattle & Yukon Steamship Company, of which Campbell & Sons claim to be the assignees.

THE SLOCAN.
Progress of Development on Several of the Most Promising Properties.

Sandon, B. C., Jan. 7.—The Reco is shipping quite a lot of very high-grade ore, and has twenty-five men at work on it. A good deal of development work is being done, and the paystreak is fifty per cent. wider than that found at any previous time in the workings. The company is considering the advisability of extending the tunnel to drive the lower tunnels, and it is secured the increased speed of working obtainable thereby will soon put this mine in a position to be a heavy tonnage shipper. The long cross-cut tunnel that has been run from the R. E. Lee has reached the spot where, as indicated by the survey, the lead should be cut. Though not as yet struck, the ground has changed so as to give every hope that the lead cannot be more than a few feet away. The last change has been obtained by the survey, and further development has proved the continuance of the ore body beyond the fault encountered. The lead is a very strong one, and is being thoroughly exploited by the owners of several claims on the Noble Fork mountains. The Idaho, owing to an accident to the shaft, has been obliged to decrease its shipments. To make matters worse, the camp of the ravine which was destroyed by fire. As a consequence, the lower levels continue to improve. All operations on the Whitewater Deep mine have been suspended indefinitely. The Rambler, Cariboo and Dardanelles have large bodies of ore in sight, and are both commencing to ship heavily. The Vancouver of Silverton, is shipping about two carloads a week of first-class ore. Though the Payne has slightly decreased its shipments, the reduction is only temporary, and has been made to give development work the chance of being advanced. The Ivanhoe, which is about a mile above the Slocan Star, and owned by the Minnesota Silver Mining Company, is the talk of the camp. The owners have spent about $50,000 in developing the property, and have so far not shipped any ore. They have at the present time, however, more ore in sight than any mine in the camp, in their lowest level there being three feet of clean galena, which assays 180 ounces in silver and 65 per cent. lead to the ton, and high-grade concentrating ore blocked out, and many good judges predict that this mine will eclipse the Payne as a producer. Work is being steadily pushed on the Miller Creek property, and quite a quantity of ore is being found where they are drifting on the lode. The Wakefield, which is about 1,000 tons during the ravine season, and as the ore will average 150 ounces of silver to the ton and about 60 per cent. lead, this means a handsome profit to the owners. This is one of the properties which failed to satisfy its owners in the earlier stages of its existence, and is another witness of the truth of the Slocan proverb, that all that the ground here requires to prove its richness is consistent development, and plenty of it.

THE RETAIL MARKETS.
Recent Frost Destroys Large Quantities of Potatoes—Security of Halibut.

Potatoes are selling at 10 cents a hundred weight more than what was obtained for them last week. The recent cold weather destroyed many tons of them, and consequently raised prices, but these, even yet, are lower than Sound quotations. The hay and grain market has assumed a temporary steadiness, and, despite the prospects last fall of a pinched situation, it seems now as though there will be an abundance for the next few months. This is, no doubt, due to the fact that the California market was not as bad as it was represented, and that as a result the demand on the British Columbia supply was not anything like what has been anticipated. A steamboatman in the Fraser river freight business said yesterday that there were great quantities of hay in stock and in many on the Mainland, the farmers not having disposed of it in the hope of big prices. With fish-dealers the main difficulty in business is to find halibut in sufficient amount to meet the present demands. Steamers reach the Terminal City with great loads of it from the northern grounds probably two or three times a month, yet there is a scarcity, and more so than there is in a Vancouver market, writing to a local dealer, says he has a standing contract for 2,000 pounds of halibut on every steamer that arrives, at 6 cents a pound, yet when the steamer reaches port he could only get 430 pounds. Bostonians and other Easterners on the Atlantic are hungry for British Columbia halibut, and in supplying their wants that a scarcity is created in home markets. The only other noteworthy feature of the local market this week is a fall of 10 cents in eggs.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR'S REPLY.

His Honor Gives His Reason for Not Considering the Citizens' Resolution.

Following is the Lieutenant-Governor's reply to the resolution passed at the citizens' meeting on Tuesday evening:

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
Victoria, Jan. 11, 1899.

Mr. J. H. Falconer, Victoria, B. C.:
Sir,—I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of a communication of even date, signed by yourself as secretary and Mr. Simcoe Duck as chairman of a meeting of the electors of the City of Victoria, held last night in the city hall, at which certain resolutions, copies of which you enclose, were said to have been adopted. In accord with the said resolutions, you ask that I withhold my assent from the bill referred to therein, until the act to make provision for the trial of certain election petitions after the session of the house of assembly. I received your communication at a quarter after 2 o'clock this afternoon, as I was about to leave Government House for the parliament buildings to give assent to the said bill, as requested by my ministers. I desire to say, however, that I gave due consideration to the said resolutions, but was unable to see my way clear to comply with your request. I beg to refer you to the following passage in a despatch as recent as December 1898, in response to petitions such as have been addressed to me, he refused to assent to a measure of local concern, which has been duly passed by the legislature, and if he failed to find other ministers prepared to assume responsibility for his action, and able to secure the support of the legislature, his position would become untenable.

My ministry have the confidence of the legislature, by which the said bill was duly passed. And I would point out to you that it is an assembly which has met for the first time, fresh from the electorate, and that even were I in sympathy with the tenor of the aforesaid resolutions, I have no warrant for believing that a refusal on my part to follow the advice of my ministry in this matter would receive the approval either of the legislature or of the electorate. For this reason, and in view of the principle enunciated in the above quoted despatch from Mr. Chamberlain, the authority of which I cannot question, I could not, to use the language of one of the said resolutions, "consistently withhold my assent to the bill therein referred to." I am, sir,

Your obedient servant,

THOS. R. MCINNES.

Lieutenant-Governor.

THE FULL COURT.

Several Appeals Heard Yesterday—Today's List.

At the sitting of the Full court yesterday, the argument in Hornby vs. New Westminster Southern Railway Co. was concluded, judgment being reserved. Whitham Shoe Co. vs. Musket was an appeal by plaintiffs from a judgment of the Chief Justice. The suit was brought against Mrs. Frances Musket to recover on certain acceptances of promissory notes. Mrs. Musket had made the business over to her husband, R. A. Musket, he assuming all liabilities. The Chief Justice decided in Mrs. Musket's favor, hence the appeal. The Full court allowed the appeal with costs. Mr. E. V. Bodwell for plaintiffs (appellants); Mr. J. A. Russell for defendant (respondent).

Re B. C. Iron Works, argument was heard and judgment reserved. Mr. J. J. Godfrey for Bank of B. N. A., appellants; Mr. E. P. Davis, Q. C., for petitioning shareholders; Mr. R. W. Harris for the company.

MR. HAYWARD TIMED.

School Board Give a Clock and an Address to the Retiring Chairman.

The retirement of Mr. Charles Hayward from the school board after fifteen years of continuous service was made the occasion of a presentation and address to him at the closing meeting of the trustees yesterday. The address, which was accompanied by a handsome clock, read as follows:

Charles Hayward, Esq., Chairman of School Board, City of Victoria:
Dear Sir,—We, your colleagues on the board of school trustees, take this opportunity of expressing our sincere regret at your retirement from the position you have so long filled. The fact that you have been again and again elected to the office of trustee, until your record covers fifteen years of continuous service—for ten of which you have also been chairman of the board, is alone the strongest possible evidence of the satisfaction you have given as a public servant. The maintenance of the public schools, involving as it does the expenditure of nearly fifty thousand dollars a year, in order that the twenty-five hundred boys and girls of the city may be properly prepared for the duties and responsibilities of enlightened citizenship, is unquestionably the most important department of the civic service. To keep the schools moving forward to a higher and higher state of efficiency; to provide for the demands of a constantly increasing school population, and at the same time to safeguard the public funds by a judiciously economical expenditure, demand not only clear-headed business ability, but likewise firm convictions as to the importance of adopting and steadily following an enlightened and progressive educational policy. Such are the qualities which have commended you to the public in your capacity as trustee, and which make your withdrawal from that office a public loss.

In order that you may hereafter be hourly reminded of our high appreciation of the courtesy, tact and practical wisdom which you have invariably manifested in your relations with us, your present associates on the board, and particularly in the discharge of the sometimes difficult and always responsible duties of presiding officer and administrative head, we beg that you will accept this small gift and our best wishes for you, alike in private and in public life. Cordially yours,

HELEN M. GRANT.
MARGARET M. JENKINS.
LEWIS HALL.
R. B. MCCLICK.
A. L. BELYEA.

Mr. Hayward made a suitable reply to the address, expressing his cordial thanks for the kind words of his colleagues. Regrets were also expressed by the members of the board at the departure of Mrs. Jenkins, and after a little routine work the meeting adjourned.

Why don't you try Carter's Little Liver Pills? They are a positive cure for sick headache, and all the ills produced by disordered liver. Only one pill a dose.

There are now over 250,000 words in the English language acknowledged by the best authorities, or about 70,000 more than in the German, French, Spanish and Italian combined.

Severe Headaches

Resulting from Catarrh Cause Great Suffering

The Great Blood Purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

Sufferers from any disease caused by impure blood should never be discouraged about taking Hood's Sarsaparilla because other medicines have failed to give relief. Remember Hood's Sarsaparilla cures when all others fail. Read this statement:

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Dear Sirs:—I think it my duty to let you know what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I was suffering with severe headaches daily and also with catarrh. One day a paper was left at my house and in looking it over I read of your great medicine's value to my fellow sufferers. I reasoned that if it cured them, why would it not cure me, although I must own I had some doubts about it, as I had tried so many so-called cures which had failed even to relieve me. At last I procured a bottle and after taking all the medicine—the headache had left me and my catarrh trouble was much better. I continued taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and have derived so much benefit from it that I would advise any one troubled with impure blood to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. I feel better now than I have for years, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. E. Gray, 27 St. Nicholas St., Toronto, Ontario.
